Jolly Old St. Nick Wows 'Em

CHEERING THROG JAMS PLATFORM AT READING STATION TO GIVE ONE OF GREATEST WELCOMES TO 'NORTH POLE KID'

The thrills that come once in a lifetime came to three shut-in youngsters who were unable to join their playmates in welcoming Santa Claus to Pottstown yesterday. Kind, old St. Nick stepped his parade to give Bill, Alyce and Betty Weber, 265 King street, a preview of Christmas and some gifts to brighten their indoor stay. The son and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Weber, the three children have been quarantined since Bill contracted scarlet fever almost two weeks ago.

Shut-Ins 'Happiest Kids in Town' After Personal Visit From Santa

Three little shut-ins, quarantined for almost two weeks because of scarlet fever, are the happiest kids in Pottstown today. Yesterday they received a personal visit from that wonderful old gentleman, Santa Claus, himself.

For the children, Bill, 5, Betty, 7, and Alyce, 10, son and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Weber, 265 King street, yesterday began as "glorious Friday." Much as they wanted to see Santa arrive at the Reading company station, they were forced to remain in the house.

But, there was one consolation. The parade was scheduled to pass by their home and they would at least get a glimpse of St. Nick.

When the siren of the police car announced the arrival of the parade, three little noses were pressed tightly against the window panes.

SUDDENLY, THREE pairs of eyes widened as the parade slowly came to a halt in front of their house. Then, they almost burst from their sockets as Santa Claus stepped from his jeep, took three presents from his bag, and marched up to their door.

Within seconds, they flew to the door, opened it wide, and looked in awe as Santa thrust the gifts into their hands with a merry smile. With a friendly nod to the staring youngsters, he marched back to his jeep and the parade continued on its way.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Weber thanked Jack Hoffman and the New York store for the wonderful surprise.

"We never expected anything like that to happen," she declared. "The children were thrilled."

"In fact, Alyce is so excited she says that every time she thinks about it she gets the shivers."

SANTA'S PERSONAL visit climaxed two weeks of wonderful treatment for the two girls and their brother.

When Bill contracted scarlet fever, the girls were forced to remain at home with him. Their classmates at the Washington school, feeling that they would get lonely, immediately packed boxes of gifts to send to them.

Mrs. Weber said Santa's visit will brighten the remainder of their quarantine. If everything goes well and the two girls do not contract the disease, they will be allowed to leave the house on Dec. 5.

Meanwhile, they will have a little touch of Christmas to warm their hearts.

Rainy Weekend Forecast; Gets Off to Early Start

Shake the wrinkles out of your oilskins — you'll need 'em.

Today's rain will be warmer than tomorrow's — that will be the only difference between the days, the weatherman predicted.

The weekend rain began last night in an accelerating drizzle at about 10:30 o'clock.

Yesterday morning's low of 30 degrees was low for the season. Since Oct. 24, however, temperatures have averaged seven degrees above normal.

THE WEATHER

For Eastern Pennsylvania: Rain and mild temperatures today. Mostly cloudy followed by rain and colder tomorrow.

This is the sight that greeted an amazed Santa Claus when he arrived at the Reading company station from the North Pole yesterday morning. Massed shoulder to shoulder, 5000 kids, many accompanied by at least one parent, were waiting to give him an enthusiastic welcome. For old St. Nick, who was brought to Pottstown by the New York store, it was one of the most thunderous ovations he ever has received. Hundreds followed him in a monster parade to a free party in the auditorium of the Senior High school.

5000 Cheering Tots Greet Santa, Overflow Auditorium

By FRANK DOSTAL
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Five thousand milling, cheering youngsters of all ages, accompanied by at least one parent, jammed the Reading company station yesterday morning to extend a royal welcome to the idol of every kid in the world—Santa Claus.

Breathless, gaping, cheering, they filled every available inch of space to catch a glimpse of the rosy-cheeked giver of Christmas joy. It was estimated that between 7000 and 8000 persons saw his arrival

Pennsburg Buys Land For Recreation Building

The borough of Pennsburg yesterday acquired title to a plot of ground on which a combination civic center and gymnasium will be constructed in the Spring.

Adjoining the Pennsburg High school, the lot has a frontage of 267 feet and is 315 feet deep.

In addition to buying this lot for $2700, of which $900 was pledged by the Pennsburg High School Alumni association, the borough also soon will acquire two contiguous plots of land, with a combined width of 90 feet and depth of 250 feet. The price of these two is $800, which also will be paid by the Alumni association.

'Army' Kettles Go Out On Streets To Collect Donations for Needy

Two of the Salvation Army's Christmas kettles appeared on Pottstown sidewalks yesterday.

It was the opening gun of a campaign which will mean the difference between Christmas and just another day to dozens of local families.

For the money that drops into the kettles between now and Christmas will be used to buy food, coal, children's clothing and toys for Pottstown's needy families.

Mrs. Meral Cox, wife of the local citadel's commander, said the public response yesterday afternoon "seemed very encouraging."

ONLY ONE KETTLE was out in the afternoon. Tended by two boys of the Young People's band, a newly-formed Army unit, it was stationed on the north side of High street between Charlotte and Penn.

Later, the second kettle was placed on the same side of High between Penn and Hanover streets. Workers with the traditional tambourines, also collected in front of both movie houses. Kettles will be out all day every weekday until store-closing time.

Mrs. Cox said three adult workers do most of bell-ringing at the kettles and the Young People's band members will be used only for relief duty.

The job is eyed enthusiastically by many youngsters, however, she said. Her own 6-year-old son, Kenneth, for instance, who is a drummer in the band, has threatened to quit the band unless he is allowed to ring the bell at the kettle, she said.

The alumni association is doing all in its power to put this thing over," he continued, "and we promise to continue our whole-hearted effort to raise the remaining necessary funds."

Water Department Starts Hydrant Flushing Here

Employees of the borough water department yesterday began the semi-annual flushing of Pottstown's 175 fire hydrants, Borough Manager Dow I. Sears announced.

The job is expected to last approximately one week.

"The water supply won't be affected," Sears reported, "but it may make the water a little dirty for a while."

"It won't be nearly so bad as it was last Fall," he added, pointing out that in 1947 the flushing job was done for the first time in several years.

A semi-annual hydrant flushing is required, the borough manager explained.

'Priceless' Gold Items Missing From Church

A gold cross and chain, both priceless to the Rev. George A. Lincker, rector of Christ Episcopal church, because of their sentimental value, and a bag containing $9 in change have been missing from the church for more than a week, it was revealed yesterday.

The cross was given to the Rev. Lincker in 1933 as an ordination present by his first congregation, St. Barnabas Episcopal church, Reading.

Trio Applauded For Concert of Chamber Music

By ED ROSENBERG
(Mercury Staff Writer)

An ideally played program of chamber music classics was presented last night by the Cummington trio before more than 450 persons in Memorial hall at The Hill.

The violinist, cellist and pianist set an enviable high standard of musicianship as without stooping to a "popular" program or to a lavish display of applause-attracting pyrotechnics, they performed solos by Brahms, Mozart and Ravel.

The performers were Nathan Gottschalk, violin; Marion De Rende, violoncello, and Prescott Barrows, piano.

For the past three years they have played a series of Sunday concerts in the auditorium of the Cummington School of the Arts, Cummington, Mass.

OUTSTANDING ABOUT their playing was their ensemble. They not only began and finished together, something few chamber groups can do consistently, but throughout their selections they performed as one artist, each sensitive to the mood of the music, interpreting it as a group, rather than as three musicians, each with his own ideas.

The Cummington trio began with the Brahms Trio in A minor, op. 8 (Continued on Last Page)

Motorist Is Fined $200 For Drunken Driving

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Nov. 26 — Lawrence Essick, 38, of Second street, Norristown, was fined $200 in Criminal court today after he pleaded guilty before Judge William P. Dannehower to a charge of drunken driving.

Patrolman Charles Stetler, of Pottstown, testified that he arrested Essick on Nov. 16, following a collision at King and Hanover streets between the defendant's car and one driven by George Cannell, of 26 Chestnut street, Pottstown.

Mounting Opposition Poses Threat To Settlement of East Coast Strike

NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (AP)—Opposition to a new tentative wage agreement to end the paralyzing East coast waterfront tieup arose here tonight and was reported developing in three other major Atlantic ports.

The first organized opposition to the pact developed in Brooklyn where 3000 AFL longshoremen decided at a meeting to reject the proposed contract when they vote tomorrow, the official date for balloting among East coast dock workers.

They made their decision at a gathering called to form a rank and file committee to fight acceptance of the new pact. They represented some 13,000 dock workers in 13 Brooklyn locals.

But Joseph P. Ryan, who heads the East coast stevedores, termed the opposition "an attempt by the Communist party to bedevil the issues."

He also declared that many of those at the Brooklyn meeting "are not members of the organization. They are men we allowed to work on the piers during the war."

RYAN DECLARED that the vote to be cast tomorrow by secret ballot will be by "members of the union in good standing," and added that "our strike committee doubts very much whether these men will have a vote tomorrow."

The Brooklyn longshoremen made their decision at a gathering called to form a rank and file committee to fight acceptance of the new pact. Leaders said they were members of 13 Brooklyn locals comprising 13,000 dock workers.

The men also called upon the rest of the longshoremen in the Brooklyn locals to vote against the proposed agreement tomorrow.

Murray Re-Elected CIO Leader, Pledges All-Out Fight Against Reds

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 26 (AP)—Parading cheering CIO delegates today re-elected as president a stern Philip Murray who asserted he would never "permit Communistic infiltration into the national CIO."

Gene was Murray's former peace-making role as the 600-odd delegates would up their annual convention by re-electing all officers by acclamation. For Murray, it is the start of his ninth year.

Murray warned the Communists that remain in the CIO to "cease and desist" their Communist propaganda. He then appealed to all CIO unions to take care of any violators.

The final day of the week-long convention also saw Murray make a friendly gesture toward the AFL. He reiterated his invitation to the AFL to confer on economic and political problems, but this time in conciliatory terms without any of the sarcasm that sometimes accompanied previous invitations. It was clear, though, that he was not accepting an AFL invitation to merge.

IT WAS THE END of a precedent-breaking convention. For the first time in many years a bitter floor fight broke out over CIO policies and Communists. The fight raged daily—until today's session, which was all cheers and applause.

It was not quite unity, for a small minority—less than 10 percent of the delegates—refused to take part in the longest ovation ever given Murray. It was a 39-minute demonstration with chanting, singing delegates parading about the convention hall, throwing confetti, waving flags and clapping hands.

Neutrals' Seek New Plan For Berlin Settlement

PARIS, Nov. 26 (AP)—The six neutrals of the Security Council began discussions tonight on a new compromise formula to end the Berlin blockade.

Their discussions were based on Soviet and Western power replies to five questions from Juan Bragulia, leader of the neutrals, concerning details of the Berlin currency tangle which were published tonight.

In its reply the Soviet Union stood pat on the Moscow agreement of Aug. 30 for the introduction of the Soviet zone mark as Berlin's only currency as a condition to the ending of the blockade.

Plans for More and Cheaper Housing Reviewed by Truman

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26 (AP)—President Truman and the Government housing chief today talked over plans to get more roofs over American heads as quickly and cheaply as possible.

Housing Administrator Raymond A. Foley said after the White House conference that they had discussed ways to get quick aid from both Congress and private industry to boost production and cut prices.

Later, the Government's housing and home finance agency said it was making progress in a plan to standardize building codes and materials.

This plan, Foley explained, is to help private industry by making available to it technical know-how worked up through Government research.

win co-operation of builders, lenders' labor and other interested groups to stimulate more home construction at lower costs and rents.

The housing legislation being planned is similar to the twice-beaten Taft-Elder-Wagner bill, named for Senators Taft (R-Ohio), Elder (D-La.) and Wagner (D-N.Y.).

Youth Who Pleaded With Father To Be 'Put to Sleep Forever,' Dies

SEPPNER, Pa., Nov. 26 (AP)—Donald Younglove, who pleaded with his dad to put him to sleep so he'd never wake again, died today.

He died of a rare, painful disease—dermatomyositis—which causes complete atrophy of the muscles. Donald knew for a long time he was going to die.

For six months, his parents watched his healthy, husky body waste away until the 14-year-old boy weighed only 35 pounds.

When the story of Donald's illness was known scores of persons called to offer help. A telegram from Canada said a clinic was sending a serum which might help. Others offered medical advice.

Donald was an active youngster before the strange disease cut him down. He won scholastic awards. He helped his dad, a disabled war veteran, build a house on their five-acre farm.

The illness struck as he was about to take a trip given him for 4-H work.

As his body became weaker, Donald often asked his father for an overdose of the morphine that kept the constant pain down to a dull ache.

"Put me to sleep, please Daddy, so I won't ever wake up," he whispered several times.

THE YOUNGLOVES have been sleeping in half hour naps around the clock to give Donald what care and comfort they could.

The weary mother, Mrs. T. F. Younglove, said in a low voice: "I couldn't say we are glad. Yet it is a blessing that Donald's suffering is finally over. But you can never be glad when your child dies, no matter what the circumstances. Still Donald is at peace at last."

The funeral Donald often had talked about with his dad will be held Tuesday.

O'Malley Trial Ends in Deadlock After 3 Days

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26 (AP)—The malfeasance trial of Magistrate John J. O'Malley ended in a jury deadlock today.

Judge W. Russell Carr declared a mistrial and discharged the eight men and four women jurors three days after they started deliberations.

The prosecution said it will press its charges of misconduct in office against the 54-year-old one-time prize fighter but that it will not be possible to bring him to trial again before January or February.

The jury's debate, from 12:55 p. m. Tuesday until 12:20 today, was the longest for many years in Philadelphia courts.

U. N. Red Bloc Says U. S. 'Waging War' On People of Greece

PARIS, Nov. 26 (AP)—Russian bloc delegates charged today that the United States "is waging war against the Greek people" and conducting an economic cold war on Eastern Europe. Some of the other delegates in the United Nations assembly slept through the harangues.

The assembly sided with the United States on the economic aid issue. It voted 23 to 6 against a Polish resolution which Western delegates said looked innocent but actually was a condemnation of American support of the European Recovery program (ERP).

Hector McNeil, Britain's acting foreign secretary, was among those who dozed off when Ales Bebler of Yugoslavia began an attack on American policies in Greece. Speaking loudly in French Bebler declared:

"In short, the United States of America is waging war against the Greek people. They (the U. S.) are going to open before the eyes of the whole world." He took the view that the present anti-Communist Greek government does not represent the Greek people.

New Premier Named As Reds Push on Toward Nanking

NANKING, Nov. 26 (AP)—As Communist armies edged closer to Nanking's Yangtze river barrier today, Sun Fo became premier of the uneasy Chinese government.

Elevation of this son of Sun Yat-sen, "father" of the Chinese republic, might be the first step towards creation of a "war cabinet" to try to cope with the critical military situation.

Some observers, however, said Sun apparently took the job because President Chiang Kai-Shek could not get anybody else to do so. This was the case when the outgoing Premier Wang Wen-Hao was chosen six months ago.

Sun Fo has been president of the legislative Yuan since 1932. He has close support of the rightist clique, but is not generally regarded as a "strong man."

Urged to Stay

Senator Robert F. Wagner (above), New York Democrat who has been in ill health for over a year and has not attended a session of the Senate since May of 1947, will be urged by the Democrats to stay on even if he doesn't attend the sessions. The Democrats are anxious to keep their 54-42 majority. If Wagner resigns, a Republican will undoubtedly be named by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

Gales Wreak Destruction In Southern California

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 26 (P)—A sudden wind swept Southern California today, fanning a brush blaze, bringing a shizzard in the mountains and uprooting ships and small boats in the harbor.

G.S.s ran as high as 50 miles an hour in some sections, trees were uprooted and Christmas decorations swayed dangerously on streets.

Six Candidates For KC to Receive First Degree Rites

Six candidates for membership in the Pottsville Council 1192, Knights of Columbus, will receive the first degree of initiation tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at the council's quarters, Kulp building, High and Hanover streets.

On Tuesday night at the same time, they will receive the second degree in the Reading council's chambers and the following Sunday at 2 p. m. the third degree will be bestowed on them in St. Paul's school hall, Reading.

The six candidates are John Slobodin, Joseph Bokav, Michael Pace, Leroy Diamond, Paul Kohler and John Meade.

Also at this Sunday's meeting the winners of the council's Columbus Day essay contest for children of the Seventh and Eighth grades of St. Alphonse Catholic school will be announced.

The winners from 40 entries are Sylvia Doni, first; Helen Karova, second; Kathleen Borziet, third; and Lucille Elias, Annapolis Perzer, Donald Tomin, Nancy DiGiosia and Saulier Implek, honorable mention.

First, second and third received $5, $3, and $2 respectively. The other placers won $1 apiece. The essays were on Christopher Columbus.

W. Carroll Hadley was chairman of the committee which arranged the contest.

The women's auxiliary of the council will hold its Christmas party for members in the council chambers Dec. 6 at 8 p. m.

Exchange of gifts and refreshments will feature the party.

PA System Used to Lead Lost Hunters to Safety

BLIND RIVER, Ont., Nov. 26 (P)—The howling voice of a high-powered public address system guided two lost hunters through six miles of wild Algonia bushland to safety recently.

A party searching for Ray Musson and Alphonse Desjardins found no trace. Tom Nash, one of the searchers, rigged up his loudspeaker on a hill. Then Nash called the hunters by name and asked them to fire a shot if they could hear him.

The sound of a shot came back. Nash asked the hunters to light a fire. When the smoke appeared above the trees, Nash "talked" them to safety. It took 16 hours.

Mine Employees Thwart $58,000 Payroll Robbery

HARMARVILLE, Nov. 26 (P)—Employees of a steel company coal mine today routed three gunmen and saved a $58,000 payroll after a shot-punctuated struggle killed two workers.

A mine plant guard was held briefly as a howage during a wild getaway ride by the would-be robbers of the Republic Steel corporation mine at nearby Indiana.

George Higgins, 48, of Harmarville, mine accountant, suffered a gunshot wound in the leg. Ira Lacey, about 50, mine electrician, seized a revolver and began firing at the bandits during the melee, but hit none. He was beaten on the head with a revolver butt.

The African ancestors of the American Negro represent tribes as diversified in human types as those found in the nations of Europe.

3 One-Room Schools Sold For Dwellings

One-room rural school houses in the Boyertown area may have outlasted their educational value, but that their utility still goes on was evidenced today when three of the structures were sold at public sale to be converted into dwelling places.

One, a landmark in eastern Berks county, Heydr's school house, located between Beechville and Eshbach, was purchased by Roy Hoffman for $2,850.

Rehr's school, located between Bally and Furgate on the Crook Hill road, was sold from the block for $2,000 to Robert W. Evans, Pottstown. The third, Frey's school, located on the Schulzville road near the Washington house, was sold to Mrs. Roy Christman for $2,950.

'Emotional Guy' to Fight Colo. Rape-Slaying Rap

BOULDER, Colo., Nov. 26 (P.)—In a letter mailed today to his mother, Joseph Walker denied that he killed Theresa Foster, and appealed for money to help him prove his innocence.

The 31-year-old sheet metal worker who described himself as "an emotional sort of a guy" addressed Mrs. Myrtle Walker of Santa Monica, Calif., as "Dear Mom and All," wrote that he probably had heard of "this awful tang" and continued:

"All I can say is that I did not kill this girl or hurt her in any way. I don't need a lawyer but I do need some money to do some investigating for myself."

Half Mile of Sewers In West End Gets Committee Approval

Approximately one-half mile of sewer lines, to be laid next year in the West End of Pottstown, were approved by members of the highway committee last night.

The new sewers will be laid on West King street, from west of Gable street to Berk's street; Quinter street, from High to H street; Rice street, from High to H street; H street, from Rice to Prince street, and Prince street, from High to H street.

Committee members also approved 15 new street lights, scattered throughout the area.

The committee approved the grading of Hale street, from Wilson to Prospect streets, for the Brookside Homes development. This job will be done in the near future.

SEWER LINE COMPLETED

Workmen yesterday completed a 250-foot stretch of sewer line on Hanover street, south of Wilson street.

Sears declared.

FINALLY, THEY turned down a request from the Second Baptist church for an exemption from the payment of approximately $400 in interest on sewer liens.

The church purchased ground adjacent to the building, and requested that the borough exempt it from payment of interest charges.

Borough Manager Dow I. Sears and committee chairman Gerald J. Daly explained that the borough, as a matter of policy, could not make the exemption.

In addition to Sears and Daly, those present last night included Allen K. Davidheiser, William F. Lamb Sr., George Ruyak, William Romich, Council President C. Roy Bush, Burgess William A. Griffith and Borough Engineer George F. Shaner.

Woman Pays Fine After Family Fight; Boy Hit by Bullet

As a result of a shot-punctured brawl among members of the Clarence Rittenough family, operators of Black Horse grill, Route 100, Chester Springs, Mo., Rittenough paid a $50 fine last night on a disorderly conduct charge.

The brawl occurred Thursday night in Phoenixville. Rittenough in a car, Mrs. Rittenough and three children followed the misadventures of the police.

When the husband stopped, police said, she struck him with a flashlight, which set off the intra family row.

A 14-year-old son, Gerald, received a flesh wound from a 32 caliber pistol carried in the truck.

A 19-year-old son, Clarence Jr., was accused of shooting him, and was held without bail in Chester County prison.

The youths hearing was set for Tuesday night before Judge of the Peace George D. Elwanger, Phoenixville. Mrs. Rittenough's case was heard in Phoenixville before William Wilson.

The 14-year-old son was given suspensory treatment in Phoenixville hospital, then returned to his Chester Springs RD 1 home.

Drops Suit

Rats Face Doom As Poison Is Spread In Chester County

The rats of Chester County met their Pied Piper last night. It was Red Squill rat poison.

In the northern Chester county area 16 North County grangers distributed 632 pounds of the mixture of horsefeed and poison to approximately 200 farmers.

They were advised to put pieces of the mixture, the size of walnuts, around their barns and sheds last night.

C. Rucolpa, Kulps, Kennelworth farmer who helped distribute the poison, said a coast of the dead rats will be very difficult since the rats almost always head for their burrows to die.

KULPS SAID THE rat mix will not usually kill other farm animals, except poultry. The reason, he said, is that dogs, cats and the like can vomit the poison and, thus get only enough to make them sick.

The rat, however, cannot vomit. He takes the whole dose and the poultry are in the same gastronomic fix, so it is advisable to keep it away from them.

Kulps planned to leave his poison out two nights, during which he would tie up his dog and pen up his cats. After two nights, he guessed, the rats would be wise to the poison.

Kulps and Miller C. Long, manager of Laurel Locks farms and also assistant to the county agricultural agent in the rat war, picked up the poison yesterday morning in Coatesville.

TWO HUNDRED POUNDS of it was mixed with 200 pounds of horsefeed and 30 gallons of water in a concrete mixer. The dose was for the entire county.

After bringing back Northern Chester county's share they divided it between 16 workers, each of whom carried ten to 15 farmers who had placed orders for the poison.

The poison was North, East and South Co. in East Nantmeal and Warfaco townships.

BEACON WINS ANOTHER TEST

Beacon Complete Starting Ration and Beacon Broiler Feed have won so many tests against competitive feeds this year that we have lost count of them.

Beacon representative William Kenny recently picked up from a customer of Wells & Son, at Parkford, the results on a test just completed by one of their customers, a broiler producer.

Two thousand chicks were placed on a well advertised competitive feed and twenty-two hundred were fed on Beacon.

At twelve weeks of age the food costs have been almost exactly the same.

However, the weight at twelve weeks of age was 3.93 lbs. average (straight run chicks) on Beacon and 3.53 lbs. on the competitive feed.

The customer received an average of 17 cents more for each Beacon fed bird or an additional profit of $360.00 on the twenty-two hundred birds fed Beacon, (based on the number of birds that lived and were sold) and likewise the customer lost over $330.00 by feeding the competitive feed to the other lot of chicks.

The results were typical of many other tests which we have recorded previously.

"Facts speak louder than words." We invite you to run a test on your farm. Wells & Son will be happy to supply you with Beacon Feeds and our free feed and poultry consulting service.

FAN-PAC DAIRY BARN VENTILATOR

Because...

FAN-PAC PROVIDES FRESH AIR — The average cow requires over 220 lbs. of fresh air daily. When cows must be stabled indoors this air requirement can only be met by positive controlled ventilation.

FAN-PAC CONTROLS BARN TEMPERATURES — Only motor-driven FAN-PAC gives both 2 speed operation PLUS thermostatic control. No more over-heated barns — no sudden temperature changes to endanger the health of cows.

FAN-PAC REDUCES HUMIDITY — Excessive humidity in the barn is robbing farmers of thousands of dollars annually in barn rot and decreased milk production, besides providing tubercular conditions for cattle.

Children's Christmas Party and Banquet Planned by Doe Club Members in Elks' Home

Thoughts of Doe club members were on Christmas last night at their meeting in the Elks' home as plans were made for their annual Christmas dinner, and a Christmas party for the children.

The party for the children will be the first of its kind to be sponsored by the group and will be held in the Elks' home, Dec. 12 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Each of the members were asked to bring their own children or gather some up in the neighborhood if they are children.

All members were asked to register their children with Mrs. Anne Jacobs in the near future.

Mrs. Betty Miller, ways and means chairman, is in charge of the annual Christmas party given by the members as a treat to their husbands, Sunday, Dec. 19 was selected as the date with a turkey dinner to be served at 6:30 o'clock.

ENTERTAINMENT will be furnished during the dinner hour with a floor show and dancing to follow. Plans were also completed for a special demonstration in table settings and decorations for the holidays to be given by Mrs. Elizabeth Bell, home economist, at the Dec. 9th meeting.

Officers of the organization expect more than 100 to attend the meeting with all foods prepared to be given to lucky members in the audience. Members are to bring a gift of about a dollar value to the meeting to exchange.

Officers were nominated for posts to be vacated by the moving up of officers at the January meeting. Mrs. Betty Weidensaul and Mrs. Jeanie Snyder will battle for the recording secretarial post, while Mrs. Frances Whitacre will oppose Mrs. Ann Smith for the office of corresponding secretary. Mrs. Kate Wolfe was nominated for treasurer.

MRS. BETTY MILLER, ways and means chairman discussed the trip to Philadelphia to attend a home-maker's center, Dec. 6. All girls attending must have their reservations to Mrs. Miller by Saturday.

Mrs. Virginia DeSot reported on the many articles being received daily for the booth the group will

BEATRICE FAIRFAX'S

Advice to the Lovelorn
Should This Couple Marry Secretly?

HOW MUCH right has a family to try to dictate to a son or daughter about marriage?

A young man of 23, who has about made up his mind to be married without his parent's knowledge because of their opposition to his plans, writes me this letter:

"The girl with whom I am in love is also 23, has been married and recently divorced. I have known her for over seven years, and she has been a friend of my family. She has a four-year-old child whom I also love.

"My family does not approve of this girl because she was married and did not stick to it, but my family knows as well as I do that the reason was because her husband drank. After this girl and I had been going together over a year, we had an argument over family disagreements and we did not see each other for almost six months. Then she telephoned and wanted to see me again. Now we are seeing each other secretly, and we want to get married, but our families are not on speaking terms. We love each other very much, and do not think we should wait any longer, so we have decided to be married in another state and tell our parents afterwards."

TO ANSWER the question about how far it is fair for a family to go in opposing a marriage, I think that wise parents will try to discriminate between their own personal prejudices and the actual facts of the case.

If the facts of this particular case are exactly as this young man has should know whether she is a girl of character who did the best she could under the circumstances that finally forced her into divorce, or an irresponsible person who gives up at the first sign of trouble. If they have always found her to be the first, they should not object now when their son wants to marry her.

If they have reason to believe the second is true of her, then they can fairly point this out to their son. But, having done so, they should give him freedom to make his own decision.

So far as the young man himself is concerned, it would seem that he has had ample time to judge what kind of a girl she is and presumably he believes her to be a worthwhile person. I assume also that he knows how he is going to support a wife without having to depend on a family obviously unwilling to lend a helping hand.

Under all these circumstances, I feel that these two would be justified in going ahead with their plans for marriage without advance notification.

Army Team Favored To Defeat Middies In Annual Tussle

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26 (AP)—A Navy football team without a victory came to town today for its annual clash with Army and discovered it had friends—thousands of them.

Tomorrow's game will be the 49th time the two service teams have met on the gridiron. And seldom in those years have there been two met with the odds so much in favor of one team as they are this time for unbeaten Army.

Yet here in Philadelphia where the Cadets trimmed Pennsylvania and the middies lost to the Quakers, there is a strong feeling that Navy is capable of an upset.

It is not a box-office inspired hunch. These Philadelphia fans actually believe it. Everyone of the 102,000 tickets was disposed of weeks ago, including the three for President and Mrs. Truman and their daughter, Margaret.

Both teams worked out on the Municipal stadium turf this afternoon in the same site where Navy almost spilled an unbeaten Army team two years ago and the exact spot where a brash young boxer named Gene Tunney dethroned Jack Dempsey a score of years ago.

THE PLAYERS found the turf to their liking. Army whirled through an hour long signal rehearsal and then returned to the Manufacturers Golf and Country club in suburban Oreland. The Middies also worked out for an hour before retiring to Pine Valley Country club at Clementon, N. J.

They will return just before tomorrow's 1:30 p. m. (Pottstown time) kickoff when the stadium seats will be filled. Among the spectators will be the top brass of both services, including the president and members of his cabinet, senators, generals and admirals.

The weather man promises to smile on the game. He has predicted occasional light rain late tonight or Saturday with cloudy and mild temperatures prevailing by kickoff time.

The esteem in which the Middies, who haven't won a game since opening their 1941 campaign, are held by Philadelphia is in direct contrast to that of the betting gentry. The latter holds that the Cadets will win by 21 points—the exact margin by which Army won the past year. The 1947 tally was 21-0. That was the Cadets' 26th victory in the series that started in 1890. Navy has won 19 but hasn't been able to triumph since 1943. Three games in the past ended in ties.

THE LATE enthusiasm for Navy is centered around the Middle line, which has been whacked by the best teams in the country for eight straight Saturdays. It never was straight although the Sailors didn't win a game.

While the Navy forward wall may be its secret weapon, there is little question that the Cadet backfield is superior to anything the Navy may have in the point-making department.

The Cadets have whipped all eight of their opponents. In those tests Gil Stephenson has developed into one of the nation's best sophomore fullbacks. With him on offense will be such veterans as Arnold Galiffa, a human skyrocket when it comes to passing from the quarter back slot. Bobby Jack Stuart and Winfield Scott. They never have been held to less than three touchdowns in any game.

In contrast the defensive half of the Army's two platoon team has yielded only 68 points. In losing its eighth, Navy has manufactured only 56 tallies while giving up 165.

Gallorrette Will Run In Last Race Today

BOWIE, Md., Nov. 26 (AP)—The last racing bugle call will sound here tomorrow for Gallorrette who will be retired as the leading money winning mare of all time.

Mrs. Marie Moore's 6-year-old mare is one of 13 top notch handicap horses named as probable starters in the $20,000 Bryan and O'Hara Memorial. The stake will feature the closing card at Bowie from where the major Atlantic seaboard racing scene will shift to the South.

Whether or not she responds to the post call tomorrow, Gallorrette is to be retired for breeding in Virginia. She will quit racing with earnings of $445,535.

Gallorrette will have to carry 122 pounds including Jockey Arnold Kirkland in the mile and three sixteenths Bryan and O'Hara. This is three pounds less than top-weighted H. L. Straus' Pilaster.

City Cage Loop Ready to Open Monday Night

Francis Donnon, director of recreation in Pottstown, announced yesterday that plans have been completed for the opening of the City Basketball League Monday night in the Pottstown Junior High gymnasium.

Donnon also announced that Gene Kauler will again be league director this year. Kauler is starting his third year with the City League. Ed Good directed the circuit the first year.

League games will be played every Monday, Wednesday and Thursday night on the North Franklin street palestra. Two games are scheduled for each playing night.

Kauler revealed that the league has been split into two six-team divisions. Teams in the No. 1 division will always play the second game of the doubleheaders.

THE FIRST GAME of each doubleheader will start at 7 o'clock. The nightcap will get underway around 8:30 o'clock.

Teams in the No. 1 division are Liberty Vets of Spring Glt, Entex Knitting Mills, Mar-a Assunta AC, Pottstown Amvets Transfiguration AA and the Collegians.

Bill AA, Fleischmann's, Plaskaters, URV 336, Shamrocks and the Three Crowns make up the No. 2 division.

In the seasons opener Monday night, the Shamrocks take on Fleischmann's at 7 o'clock. The nightcap pits Entex against the Liberty Vets.

Kauler said the league wasn't decided about championship playoffs. The league director said the tie playoffs will be the main topic of discussion at the next meeting of team managers.

St. Bonaventure Rejects Bid to Cigar Bowl

OLEAN, N. Y., Nov. 26 (AP)—St. Bonaventure college rejected a bowl bid today and will consider no others.

The Rev. Sidas Rooner O. F. M., athletic director, said Hugh DeVore's Brown Indians had been invited to play football New Year's Day in the Cigar Bowl at Tampa, Fla.

The invitation was declined he explained, because college authorities feel "too much loss" to the players would be involved.

ROCKY GRAZIANO

NBA Suspends Rocky In All Parts of World

PATTERSON, N. J., Nov. 26 (AP)—National Basketball Association President Abe J. Greene said today Rocky Graziano has been suspended immediately from playing in all parts of the world under NBA supervision.

Greene said the action was automatic following Graziano's suspension today by the California State Boxing commission. He said the NBA always concurred with any action taken by any member commission.

Joe Genshler, secretary of the California Boxing commission, said the action was taken as a result of Graziano's "running out" on a fight Dec. 1 in Oakland when Fred Apostoli.

Greene said the boxer will be given a "chance to straighten the matter out" as a hearing Dec. 18 in Los Angeles if he desires and, if the state commission decides to lift the ban, the NBA would also reinstate Graziano.

In 26 contests Sanford has notched 17 wins over Santa Clara. The Broncos have won eight. One game was tied.

PITT LOOKING FOR DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

May Hire Tom Hamilton To Rebuild Football Picture for Future

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 26 (AP)—Pitt may solve its football problem by hiring Tom Hamilton as athletic director.

That's the way most sports experts see the Panthers' efforts to obtain a new athletic director. The man would take over in time for the start of the football season in 1949.

The 1948 varsity record of six wins and three losses, including a stunning upset of Penn State, was the finest in a decade.

Navy Capt. Tom Hamilton reportedly has the inside track for the job. He is a former Pitt player and has been coaching football for many years.

Hamilton now functions in a similar post at the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. Pitt's athletic director, Fred McKeown, is expected to leave the school in 1949.

Reports have it that the others include Harvey H. Harnett, Jr., of Rutgers, Jack (Spide) Hadden, of Miami U., Ed Wes Fesler, of Ohio State, and Lloyd Jordan of Amherst. All but Fesler and Hamilton are Pitt alumni.

Paul Brown, Cleveland Browns' mentor in the All-America pro football conference, also was mentioned in early rumors but his name now is conspicuously absent. It's doubtful if Pitt could afford to pick up the tab for Brown's services.

Fesler reportedly has rejected Pitt overtures. Hamilton would be the first non-Pitt man at the helm of the school's sports program.

Hamilton's most recent tour of duty, at the Naval Academy, has been something less than sensational from a victory standpoint. But he hasn't had to withstand verbal broadsides from irate alumni—official and otherwise.

That sort of firing ultimately led to the resignation of James Hagan as Pitt's athletic director last summer after 10 stormy years.

Before Hagan's resignation the fog of war enveloped everybody at Pitt with various committees laying down edicts of blame like barrages. One group wanted Hagan fired. Another leveled off at Coach Walter (Mike) Milligan, who still has another year to go on a three-year contract.

The Panthers' 1948 success apparently guaranteed that Milligan will work out his contract—but there is a faction at Pitt which firmly believes Mike lacks head coaching stature.

Pitt's severe pruning at the hands of "Big Nine" opposition, climaxed by a 69-0 pasting by Michigan a year ago in a season which brought only one Pitt victory in eight tries, led to the explosion which blew Hagan out of office.

GRIDDERS MAKE QUICK CHANGE TO BASKETBALL

Trojan Cagers Hold Practice Tilt at Hill; 5 Grid Players Report

Pottstown High football has taken a back seat, and basketball is getting ready to grab its share of the headlines.

All area schools in the Pottstown area closed their grid season Thursday morning or afternoon, and basketball coaches will be calling for candidates Monday.

In Pottstown, however, football players wasted little time in donning basketball togs.

Coach Ed Good scheduled an afternoon workout with The Hill, and five football players reported. Good has been holding workouts for boys who don't play football for the past four weeks, but yesterday he saw some new faces.

BOBBY MAUGER, Joe Pollock and George "Bud" Rahn, regulars on the Trojan cage quintet a year ago, but on the basketball scene yesterday. Bob Doory and Frank Formando, two Trojan backfield men, also joined the basketball forces.

The Trojans moved into sparsely attended Hill basketball games at The Hill yesterday and engaged in an interesting scrimmage. Good was pleased at how the football players handled themselves on the basketball court only one day after playing a football game.

Good said he will step up the tempo of the workouts Monday and look hard workouts will continue through the week. The Trojans opening game with Dovesdown is less than two weeks away.

BROWER YERGER, the Trojans' leading scorer a year ago, has been practicing for the past four weeks and is rapidly rounding into shape. He is expected to start early.

Most of the schools open their cage season the second or third week in December.

West Pottsgrove Bovertown and other high schools in the area are expected to start heavy practice Monday. Coaches said it will be some time before the gridders become accustomed to the basketball court, and it's best to start early.

Most of the schools open their cage season the second or third week in December.

Twin-Boro AA Faces Phoenixville Foe Today

Twin-Boro AA and Phoenixville Moose will meet in a "bully" game this afternoon at 2 o'clock on the gridiron at Lake View Memorial park, Royersford. Each team has won one game during the past two years. Today's game was arranged to settle the question of supremacy amid considerable rivalry between the two camps.

ARCHIE SWOYER LOSES

Archie Swoyer, Pottstown heavyweight, lost a four round decision to Don Clonci, Philadelphia, in the Reading Armory last night. It was Clonci's second win over the local fighter. Clonci weighed 187; Swoyer, 180.

Earl Bartholome, forward of the Minneapolis Millers of the U. S. Hockey league is playing his 16th season of pro hockey.

Howard Names Stouch To Starting Position

Pottstown High football coach Heber T. Meyers learned something new Thursday morning. He found out for himself that his football players know good sportsmanship as well as good football.

Meyers was uneasy on the trip to Downingtown for the final game of the season Thursday morning. He was undecided about his left halfback position.

Stouch, Howard and Bob "Chubb" Spach had alternated at left halfback all year and both had turned in fine performances. Both are seniors and Meyers didn't know which to start in the last game.

The Trojan mentor told the two backs that he didn't feel qualified to pick a starter and suggested that they flip a coin to see which boy would get the starting assignment.

What Meyers asked Stouch to do was to flip a coin, the Trojan coach said. "That's fair enough," Stouch said.

HOWARD, however, declined the offer. Instead, he told Meyers "Start Chubbie in the game."

He's earned the starting position. He's been playing great football in the last few games.

Meyers nodded, and later started Stouch at left halfback against Downingtown. Just before the game, Meyers said "I thought a lot of Howard's decision. It's really something when a boy turns down a chance to start a game to let another boy play. Boy, that's sportsmanship. I'm proud of that kid."

STOUCH started the game and went on to wind up his high school career with a great performance against Downingtown, although the Trojans lost the game.

The little halfback scored Pottstown's second touchdown and was the leading ground gainer on the field. Howard entered the game late in the first quarter, and on his first play, scampered 75 yards to score Pottstown's first touchdown.

Maria Assunta Opens Cage Season Tomorrow

Maria Assunta AC will be the first to open another basketball season tomorrow afternoon, playing host to the 1900 Club of Reading in the nightcap of a doubleheader at the Pottstown Armory.

The Pottstown Amvets will take on the Pottstown Collegians in the opener of the two o'clock at 8:30 o'clock. The main event will start immediately after the first game.

The Reading quintet copped the Reading Varsity circuit title a year ago and has won three consecutive games this year. The 1900 Club team consists of former members of the Reading Falcons, runnersup in the Pottstown town Keweenaw Basketball tournament a year ago.

Johnny Baker has taken over the coaching reins at Maria Assunta this year. Last night Baker announced that his starting lineup for tomorrow's game will have Emil Kovach and Billy Missimer at forwards, Bill Maloney at center and Joe Monaghan and Ray Fisher at guards.

Bob and Rod Cannell, Charles McCarthy, Bob Kirby and Jim Tascione will start for the Collegians in the opener. The Amvets will open

Don't Change Too Fast
ENCOUNTERING something unexpected during the play of a contract should make you sit up and think. If you had a well developed plan in the beginning, you must consider changing it. But don't change too quickly. Give the new situation the same kind of thought you used with the original plan. Maybe some inspired idea, which hit you when the surprise appeared, as not such a good idea after all, and perhaps you should proceed along the first path.

Not everybody would bid 2-No Trumps on that South hand, but the bid should have worked out well in this case, and would have if South had not developed a burst of genius shortly after the play began.

West opened the diamond 7, the J winning that trick, the Q the next and the A the third. South had decided that by holding up the A until the third round and then playing clubs toward East, he could probably keep West out of the lead and make his contract—if East had the heart A. The plan was pretty sound, so South embarked on it.

Laying down the club A, the South was startled by the fall of the J. He let that change his plan, deciding that East was more likely to have a doubleton Q-J originally than that West had four headed by the Q. If that was the case, he reasoned, he could clean up the whole club suit by dropping the Q with the dummy's K. So he tried that and was flabbergasted when East discarded a heart. Worst still, he was beaten, as now all he could score was eight tricks, with three in hearts, one in diamonds and two each in the black suits.

Even with the chance that East held the club Q, South should have finessed the 10 on the second trick. If that failed, enough club tricks would be certain to give him game anyway, without risk to his contract if the heart A was where it had to be. And it would have given him extra trick if the finessé worked. In addition, the Q was more likely to be with West than East, after the fall of the J.

Year-Week-End Question

the second floor, a room used for basketball games, dances and other public functions, and a meeting room.

"That place is entirely inadequate for athletics," Pirnik emphasized.

AFTER THE NEW civic center is completed—the alumni association hopes to see it in use by the Fall of 1949 — borough council will gather in one of its meeting rooms, Pirnik declared, leaving the firemen in possession of the town hall.

Architects' plans for the civic center call for one main building with two wings. In the basement of each wing will be shower rooms and other athletic facilities, while on the first floor will be meeting rooms for community use.

The main part of the one-story building will contain a combination gymnasium and auditorium, with floor space of 75 by 40 feet.

The overall outside dimensions of the building will be 120 by 85 feet. The front will be constructed of concrete and brick, and the remainder solely of brick with a concrete block base.

PENNSBURG'S FORTHCOMING civic center will be near Sixth and Main streets, only 100 yards from the high school.

It is expected that clearing of the land will begin during the Winter, so that construction may begin in early Spring.

Acquiring the land has been a hectic business for the borough and the alumni association.

The borough and the alumni association are for possible future expansion of the civic center, Pirnik explained. All three lots are adjoining.

The ground once was part of the John Weyand estate.

5 Teen-Agers Hurt As Truck Upsets at Woodchopperstown

Five teen-agers riding in a pickup truck were injured, none seriously, when it overturned on a dirt road in Woodchopperstown, Berks county, last night at 11:30 o'clock.

They were taken to Pottstown hospital by Boyertown Community ambulance.

Wanda Tobias, 15, Douglassville RD 1, said the truck driver, David Greger, 18, Aitah, had been following another vehicle's car when the truck failed to pull out of a sharp turn. The truck toppled onto its left side.

The major injuries were Janet Wise, 15, Douglassville RD 2, a cut of the right ear requiring five stitches, and Elaine Angstadt, 14, Birdsboro RD 2, a cut chin requiring five stitches.

Greger and Miss Tobias escaped with bruise bumps, as did the fifth occupant, Emma Sue Spaid, 15, Monocacy Station.

A 21-YEAR-OLD Northtown girl, returning with three Northtown friends from a Pottstown movie at 12:05 o'clock Friday morning, was injured when their car hit a pole in front of Ursinus college, Collegeville.

Collegeville Chief of Police George Meyer said he believed the driver, Pvt. James A. Klouse, 20, went to sleep.

Jane Steats suffered a broken left upper arm and left knee cap and bruises. She and Klouse were taken to Montgomery hospital, Northtown, by Howard Hoffman, Main street, Royersford.

Elverson Man Jailed On Assault Charge

Charles H. Morton, Elverson RD 1, was arrested last night on an assault and battery charge filed by his son, C. Richard Morton, as a result of a family row the past Aug. 22.

The son, a student at Dickinson college, Carlisle, Cumberland county, had withheld action pending developments in the family relationship. When he returned home for Thanksgiving, he consulted an attorney who recommended prosecution.

Justice of the Peace Ralph W. Ralston, South Pottstown, issued the warrant and set bail at $1000, which the defendant was unable to raise.

He will be committed to Chester County prison this morning to await a further hearing on Dec. 3, at 8 p. m. before Ralston.

Morton was arrested at his home by H. Robert Hoppe, Parkerford constable.

SANTA PARTY —

greeted Kris Kringle with two roaring choruses of "Jingle Bells."

Then Kenneth Spero, a volunteer from the audience, made a gallant and highly original attempt to recite "The Night Before Christmas." His efforts won him a gift from a beaming Santa Claus.

In keeping with the spirit of the Christmas season, the kids joined voices to sing "Silent Night" for just a moment, every youngster sang quietly as the words of the popular and traditional hymn filled the auditorium.

FIFTEEN YOUNGSTERS got an additional thrill when they found they were holding the lucky tickets drawn by Little Doris Sanner. Each one tried to the stage to receive an additional gift from St. Nick.

As the last one returned to his seat, the stage was cleared. Seconds later, the curtain rose again on Magician Norman Leblang who kept the youngsters goggle-eyed with his mysterious feats. Most mystified of all was Raymond Peterson, another volunteer, who had his tie cut in half and then found it completely whole in the center of a pile of blocks.

When Leblang had completed his feats of magic, the lights were lowered and the kids were regaled with a cartoon, a comedy, and a movie of "The Night Before Christmas."

No sooner had the auditorium emptied after the first show than it was filled again by the crowds waiting for the second show.

"We thought there would be only 360 or 400 persons for the second showing," Hoffman declared, "but they filled the house again. It was wonderful."

Man Held for Court After Pocketbook Disappears at Party

One of the guests at a Thanksgiving Day party at the home of Mrs. Winston Jones, 605 Water street, was held under $500 bail for court yesterday because when he left the party, so did a pocketbook and $26 which belonged to another guest.

The guest, Graham Day, 645 Water street, was picked up by Motor Patrolman Stanley Borowicz at his home yesterday on a warrant issued by Justice of the Peace Richard H. Cadmus, of the Seventh ward.

According to the police, when Day left the party Thursday night, he took a pocketbook belonging to Mrs. Lucille Thomas, Darby, with him.

Yesterday morning, Julia Jones, a sister of Mrs. Thomas, went to Day's home to get back the purse. It was given to her by Mrs. Day, but $26 which had been in it was missing.

Mrs. Jones then swore out a warrant for Day's arrest after calling police. He was taken before Cadmus who ordered him held for court under $500 bail.

HEART ATTACK FATAL

HARRISBURG, Nov. 26 (AP)—Herbert Ware, 50-year-old construction worker, today died of a heart attack on the roof of a downtown bank building.

The first Atlantic cable was laid in 1858 between Newfoundland and Ireland.

ITEMS MISSING —

Episcopal church went to Washington, D. C., for religious services on Nov. 15, the cross and chain were in their customary resting place in a square box in a drawer in his desk.

This drawer, he said, was never locked, since several church officers used it.

On Thursday, Nov. 18, Mrs. Charles R. Gochnaur, of 825 North Franklin street, put a number of envelopes into the drawer. She noticed then that the box was gone, but assumed the Rev. Lineker had taken the items to Washington.

HE RETURNED to Pottstown the past Saturday, and early the next morning, when he went to the drawer to take out the cross and chain for his church service, he noticed they were gone.

After the services a thorough search was made of the premises, but the articles could not be found. "I won't say for sure that they were stolen," the Rev. Lineker declared. "I hope they were only mislaid."

He was certain, however, that the cloth bag, containing $3 in change, was stolen from the unlocked church safe.

He also noticed the bag missing the past Sunday. The money represented Sunday school collections.

The safe generally is left unlocked.

"A number of people must have access to it," the Rev. Lineker explained, "and besides, we didn't think anyone would steal from a church."

Gets Prison Term

A college student, James Newton Garver 3d (above), 26, is shown in Philadelphia just before he was sentenced to serve a year and a day in prison for refusing to register for the peacetime draft. The son of a Buffalo, N. Y., banker, young Garver said he did not register because of the dictates of his conscience.

CONCERT TRIO —

101, a work full of dark harmonies and frequently somber melodies. Even when they established a mood of quiet and thoughtfulness, however, the audience inhaled upon applauding between movements.

The musicians, when they played the Mozart trio in E major, K. 542, put a stop to this abominable practice at least once, proceeding directly from the second to the third movements with only the briefest pause.

The pianist, especially, showed his skill in the intimate framework of ensemble playing, contrasting the demanding sonatas of the Brahms trio with the delicate playing called for by Mozart.

After the intermission, the group concluded with a performance of Ravel's difficult and complex Trio in A minor.

This tremendously varied work, with moments of quiet beauty that
